

United States Department of Agriculture

Save the Date:

Forest Service Hiring Range Positions

Internships for Students

The Forest Service is hiring paid interns as part of the Society for Range Management (SRM) Annual Meeting under the Pathways Student Intern program. Paid internships are available across the country and lead to permanent jobs upon successful completion of the program.

Internships

- Rangeland management specialists
- Soils scientists
- Hydrologists

Apply Online

Applications will only be accepted on www.USAJOBS.gov, February 12-16, 2018. Applicants do not need to be registered for the SRM Annual Meeting nor attend in-person to apply. There will not be an in-person application process for this hiring event. Visit our website for internship locations and direct links to the application on USAJOBS.

Who Can Apply

Students currently enrolled in qualifying educational programs or institutions (high school to postgraduate level) can apply to these internships.

Tips for Job Seekers – Attend Our Webinars to Learn Helpful Tips

Join Forest Service employees for a webinar to learn more about these internship opportunities and gain helpful hints about the USAJOBS application process. The webinar takes place Thursday, February 8, 2018 at 4 p.m. MST. Learn how to join the webinar on our website.

More Information

Full details about eligibility and the application process are available on the “Hiring & Recruitment Events” section of www.fs.fed.us/FSJobs. Contact us at recruitmentandhiring@fs.fed.us, or call Human Resources Management at (877) 372-7248, Option 2 for more information.

Forest Service

#WorkForNature
fs.fed.us/fsjobs

The USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.