KDWG 90.9 Campus Radio is Hiring!

The campus radio station KDWG will be filling a paid staff opening in block one. The position is year-round, involves a commitment of 10 hours per week, and is open to any full-time student at UM Western. The following description provides some details of the position:

PSA Director: The PSA Director will be responsible for updating Public Service Announcement files on the station computer. This will include producing and recording various PSAs and other campus announcements, as well as creating station liners and promos. The PSA Director will assist the Station Supervisor, General Manager, Music Director, and on-air staff with the technical aspects of their respective jobs and will help set up equipment for dances and other events.

Application Instructions:
E-mail your application to robert.micken@umwestern.edu. The application package should include a resume listing your educational, work, and service experience and a cover letter which includes your address and telephone number, your anticipated date of graduation from Montana Western, and the position for which you would like to be considered. In addition, the letter should address the following questions: a) what interests you about working at the station? b) what qualities do you possess that would prove to be valuable in your service to the station? This may include broadcast experience, a background in music or performance, familiarity with technology, management experience, etc.; c) what ideas do you have that might be implemented to improve different aspects of the station’s performance or its role on campus?

If you have any questions about the positions, the application process, or the station, address them to Rob Micken (robert.micken@umwestern.edu) or Mickenlie Baxter (mick.cowgirl@outlook.com)

Applications are due by 8:00 am on Monday, September 19, 2016
