

Position: Tutor

Department: Fine Arts – Glass Program

Supervisor: Michael Hengler

Pay Range: $8.05 - $9.95/hr (commensurate with experience)

This position exists to provide students with an additional resource who can provide technical and conceptual help to the students on their class projects, outside of class time. The tutor must be educated about the studio equipment, safety procedures, shop etiquette, and first aid. The monitor must be available to attend the studio during non-class hours in order to provide the students their with their additional educational resource, and to help ensure student and studio safety.

Conditions to Consider:

- Maximum of 20 hours in a two-week period
- List of duties:
  1. Help students with their course assignments by providing them technical and conceptual guidance outside of class.
  2. Help me provide a clean and safe studio space.
  3. Help students stay safe by ensuring they are following the correct safety procedures.
  4. Be available to assist students with any first aid needs, or in start-up or shut-down procedures.

Preferred:

- First Aid Training
- Previously enrolled in three glass courses.