Student Wellness Work Study, Job Description

Qualifications:

Student must have qualified for and been granted Federal work study for the current academic year. In addition, they must be creative, enthusiastic, extremely reliable, and possess excellent computer skills.

Job Duties:

1. Work a dependable 8-10 hours per week. Times can flex with each block but should remain consistent for the duration of that block.
2. Assist with marketing health promotion programs.
3. Submit Student Health 101 videos and custom pages.
4. Download promotional materials on or around the 25th of each month, make copies, and post in the Stall Street Stories holders in each bathroom stall on campus.
5. Assist with Student Health 101 as needed with videos and other customized input.
6. Assist student wellness coordinator with any health promotion activities on campus.
7. Other duties as assigned.

Note: This position is supervised by Lexi Benson, MS in Dean of Students Center. Interested students should obtain an application form from Lexi or the Student Affairs Office. Start Date is August 29, 2016. Open until filled. Apply soon!
Student Wellness Work Study Application

Last Name: __________________________ First Name:____________________________

Year in School: ______________________ Degree:______________________________

Phone number: ______________________ Address:____________________________

Past work experience: job title & years
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

Job skills (computer, marketing ):
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

Please Include times and days you are available to work.
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________