ADDITIONAL INFORMATION and INSTRUCTIONS

Filing category - "Who should complete this form?"

- 1. Former/previous Montana Western students who have not attended classes at UMW for one year (12 months) or more, or,
- 2. Former/previous Montana Western students who attended another college/university since last enrolled at Montana Western, or,
- 3. Former/previous Montana Western students who were suspended from Montana Western for academic or disciplinary reasons (regardless of the length time elapsed since last enrolled at Montana Western i.e. suspended students who seek readmission to UMW for the semester immediately following the suspension term must complete this form as part of the suspension-readmission process). In addition to completing this form, suspended students must attach a thoughtfully prepared 'education plan' that includes:
 - A. A detailed outline of the problems that may have caused academic problems in the past and the current status of those issues/hindrances:
 - B. A statement detailing how the student will improve his/her academic performance (if readmitted):
 - C. The petitioner's education and career goals and detailed plans for goal attainment.

Some individuals in this category are required to submit statements detailing unusual or extenuating circumstances that may have contributed to their poor academic performance and provide documentation which verifies their claims (example: a statement from a physician if a medical emergency is cited as the cause); these documents should be reviewed and signed by student's advisor, the university counselor and personnel in the Advising Office. Refer to the Academic Probation, Suspension, Readmission Policy for more information.

Individuals whose only previous enrollment at Montana Western has been in School of Outreach courses and who have never formally applied for admission to Montana Western or students that have already been awarded a bachelor's degree at Montana Western should complete a Montana Western Application for Admission and submit all required application materials (and outlined in the current university catalog) to the UMW Admissions Office.

Admission Status:

Degree-Seeking - individuals who plan to complete requirements for an undergraduate degree (BS, BAS, BA, AA, AS, AAS). Non-degree-Seeking - individuals who do not plan to complete requirements for a degree.

Application Fee - The undergraduate Admissions Application fee is a non-refundable one-time-only fee. Former/previous Montana Western students who formally applied for admission to Montana Western or any of the other units of the Montana University System and who paid the undergraduate application fee will not be required to pay this fee again.

Readmission Application Deadline – Completed UMW Readmission Application form and any/all additional readmission-related paperwork, should be submitted to the Admissions Office at least one month before the start of classes of the ("When do you plan to enroll") term indicated on the front of this form. Readmission applications will be accepted after this deadline, but registration is NOT guaranteed for the term requested and enrollment may be delayed or deferred to the next term depending upon the circumstances.
