The University of Montana Gerontology Society is hosting this event at the 39th Annual MGS Conference to introduce students interested in the health professions to working with older adults in a variety of health care environments. This event will give you the opportunity to learn more about careers in various health care settings, and allow you to explore a variety of professions that constantly need trained professionals to work with the older population. The event will include the opportunity for you to visit five different breakout rooms, each with a different health professional.
