

SUCCESS STARTS HERE

Are you a college junior and a U.S. Citizen looking for a well-paid summer internship? This opportunity could lead to a career with one of the nation's top banking regulatory agencies.

Apply now!

The FDIC offers paid internships for the Financial Management Scholar (FMS) in two of its divisions:

DCP

The Division of Depositor and Consumer Protection promotes economic inclusion and examines and supervises insured financial institutions to evaluate whether they treat consumers and depositors fairly and operate in compliance with federal consumer protection, anti-discrimination, and community reinvestment laws.

Learn more about DCP FMS opportunities by scanning the QR Code or by visiting: fdic.gov/about/careers/FMSPcompliance.html

RMS

The Division of Risk Management Supervision examines and supervises insured financial institutions by analyzing their financial health and asset quality; assessing risk management policies, procedures and controls; and evaluating the effectiveness of bank management.

Learn more about RMS FMS opportunities by scanning the QR Code or by visiting: fdic.gov/about/careers/FMSPriskmgt.html

Key Aspects:

- Interns work on bank examinations with experienced team members.
- Independent transportation is required. Travel for official business is reimbursed by the FDIC.
- Minimum overall (cumulative) GPA of 3.25 is required.
- Lodging stipend of $2,500 is available.

The FDIC is an equal opportunity employer. We recruit, hire, and develop a high-performing workforce that reflects the communities we serve. Applicants are considered without regard to their race, religion, color, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity, and sexual orientation), national origin, disability, age, genetic information, retaliation, parental status, or other non-merit factors.